

Terms and Conditions

1. Payment of all goods strictly 20th of the month following date of invoice.
2. Method of payment as detailed at the time of sale unless otherwise arranged.
3. That under the terms of the Privacy Act (1 July 1993) you irrevocably authorise any person or company to provide us with such information as we may require in response to our credit enquiries. That you authorise us to furnish to any third party details of this application and any subsequent dealings that you may have with us as a result of this application being actioned by us.
4. That you undertake to pay the account in full on or before the due date. In default of such prompt payment, you undertake to pay late payment fees on any amount outstanding and to indemnify us and pay all costs and expenses on a solicitor/client basis if legal action is necessary and/or a debt collection company of our choice, which we may incur in recovering from you any overdue amount.
5. Delivery of goods to the client is made on the express condition that ownership of the goods is reserved and shall remain vested in Core Blimey and shall not pass to the customer until the customer has paid the purchase price in full.
6. The customer agrees that the proceeds of any supplied goods to a third party, (i.e. customer's client) shall be the property of Core Blimey and such funds shall be kept (in trust) in a separate trust account naming Core Blimey as the beneficial owner and such funds shall be used towards full payment of the supplied goods in event of non-payment or insolvency by the customer. If the customer is in default of any payment Core Blimey shall be entitled to uplift any goods supplied (or such part of the goods as remain separately identifiable and not permanently attached to any other property) from the customer's premises and the customer authorises Core Blimey to enter upon its premises at any reasonable time to recover its goods pursuant to this clause.
